

Section	Changed	Old 4-1	Revised 4-1	RESULTING CHANGE
(a)	N	Open Container Defined	same
(b) (1)	N	Unlawful - open container or consume beer anywhere without an on-premises permit	same
(b) (2)	N	Unlawful - open container or consume beer on any public land or space unless exempted in section (d)	same
(b) (3)	Y	Unlawful - open container or consume beer on any privately owned parking lot held open to use by the public	Unlawful... without permits identified in Sec. 4-76 & 4-77	clarifies uses already allowed by temporary serving permits; adds equitable use across the city compared to past use by delineated list of areas
(b) (4)	Y	Unlawful - open container or consume beer in Chilhowee Park or Knoxville Zoo	removed, treated same as other city land	All public land subject to restrictions in Sec 4-77
(c)	Y	Consumption of alcoholic beverages may be permitted on the Lower Second Creek site in connection with a city-sponsored or authorized event in accordance with a permit granted by the city.	Consumption of alcoholic beverages may be permitted in connection with a city-sponsored or authorized event in accordance with a permit granted by the city.	Consumption may occur when authorized and permitted; Applies anywhere in the city.
(d)	Y	Possession of an open container of beer or alcoholic beverages and the consumption of beer or alcoholic beverages may be permitted in the areas specified in section 4-76 of this Code, provided that such possession or consumption is either: Authorized by a special permit granted by the beer board in accordance with section 4-76, or(2) Pursuant to 4-76(g), for an event held wholly within Lakeshore Park, the individual or entity has obtained a facilities use permit anda.The beer or alcoholic beverage is sold or distributed by the holder of a liquor by the drink caterer's license issued by the state alcoholic beverage commission orb.The individual or entity engages a professional bartending company or service whose servers hold current and valid server permit cards issued by the Tennessee Alcoholic Beverage Commission.c. Further, the individual or entity obtaining the facilities use permit shall comply with the insurance requirements required by the city for comparable events at city parks and facilities.	Possession, sale and consumption of an open container of beer or alcoholic beverages may be permitted in designated areas specified in section 4-76 and 4-77 of this Code, provided that such possession or consumption is authorized by a special permit granted by the beer board in accordance with section 4-76 or 4-77, and the individual or entity obtaining the permit shall comply with the insurance requirements required by the city for comparable events on public property.	ties requirements for permitted exceptions to Sec. 76 and Sec. 77 (not just 4-76); omits special criteria for a single park in the city; no change to insurance requirements as determined by the city.